Update for Lawful Permanent Residents: 40 Work Quarter Requirement Removed

The purpose of this bulletin is to alert Medicaid providers to a change in a Virginia healthcare coverage (Medicaid) policy that was made in the 2020 Appropriations Act, which could impact patients who are residing in the United States as lawful permanent residents (LPRs). In the past, LPRs who had met the five-year federal residency rule were also required to show proof of at least 40 quarters of employment for which Social Security taxes were paid prior to meeting Medicaid eligibility requirements.

In accordance with Item 313.XXX of the Act, as of April 1, 2021, LPRs who entered the U.S. on or after August 26, 1996 and have five years of residency may now be eligible for healthcare coverage with no requirement to have accumulated work quarters. All other Medicaid eligibility requirements must still be met.

Individuals who have been denied Medicaid coverage in the past due to the lack of work quarters and LPRs with at least five years of residence in the U.S. are encouraged to apply for Medicaid through one of the following ways:
